

MALA IS BACK

MALA has kicked off again classes will soon begin
I don't know how you're feeling, for me, it's like a lotto win
So my advice if you've not booked is get your tail in gear
And get along, we don't know how long classes will be here.
Victoria has shown us that nothing is secure
This virus is out there lurking, as yet there is no cure.

Grab a chunk of History knowledge, learn French while having fun
Discuss issues Philosophical, or learn of the Ageing of the Brain
Write yourself a story and learn the techniques of the pros
Make some unique jewellery and feel a creative glow
No matter what you choose to do, do something while we may
And in the meantime cross your fingers that MALA's here to stay.
