

MALA ROCKINGHAM COURSE TOPIC SURVEY

Please help us keep providing course that are of interest to you.

I'd like :

Here are just a few areas to set you thinking about what you would like.

Art – from practical to history and appreciation

Literature – in all its wonderful forms (Suggest your favourite)

Brain Busting – pastimes such as Mahjong and Cryptic Crosswords

Crafty Pursuits – such as crochet, flower arranging, card making, jewellery making and others

Natural Science – evolution and change - natural history - ecology – plant, animal, marine science, etc

Geology and Geography – Australian, Worldwide

Science – how scientific advances are impacting on all aspects of our lives and the trends that will determine our future. From personalised medicine or robot surgeons to forensics or artificial intelligence, future climate patterns and even our food production

Medical Science – the history and future of medical practice

Philosophy and Ethics – the art of examining what it is to be human and how to truly think – the Big Questions

Politics – Local, Australian, the Constitution and World Affairs

History – Ancient to Modern Local, Australian, Indigenous or World, Military, Dynasties ...

Music – form and rhythm, a look at all the genres. Music appreciation

Law – from what impacts you to the legal system in general and question of justice

Future Trends – coping with change in the 21st century, sustainability, population, alternative energy sources, the digital age in general and examining what is in store in the coming years

The Media in the 21st century – how do we navigate and survive its influence

Our Language – playing with words, creative writing for fun

Languages – French, Spanish, Italian, Indigenous, Japanese, Indonesian or other

Cultures of the world

Genealogy – Family History and the brave new world of DNA

Please either print this form or pick one up at the reception desk - Thank you